Dear Austin High Families,

As we prepare for the reopening of schools on August 18, 2020, know we are working hard to provide as much information as possible so that your family may plan accordingly. We look forward to seeing our students in person on September 7, 2020. A detailed bell schedule is attached with definitions of synchronous learning and student work time. We encourage families to review this information and start to prepare for learning in a virtual setting, at least for the first three weeks of school.

While we do not have all of the answers to your questions at this point in time, we are working around the clock to prepare for quality instruction, safety, and cultural proficiency. These three areas will guide our work as we continue to adapt to the changing dynamics around the reopening of schools. We appreciate your support as we strive to provide safe and engaging learning during the fall semester while also balancing the ever-changing COVID concerns in our immediate community.

We are Maroons, we are strong, we will get through this together.

Loyal Forever,

Amy Taylor, Austin High School Principal
